A Day In The Countryside (tourcode - 4F04)

The one-day photographic tour is an unique opportunity to explore the countryside around Siem Reap

Explore and discover the beauty of Cambodia's countryside. We'll show you the villages along the ricefields, scenic pagodas and life in the floating villages on the Tonle Sap (perfect for sceneries and portraits).

Preah Vihear (tourcode - 4F05)

The two-day photographic experience is a unique photo-opportunity to explore the famous Preah Vihear Templesite near the Thai border

About the tour:

A 2-days tour via Anlong Veng (Pol Pot's graveyard near the Thai border) towards Preah Vihear. On top of the mountain we'll meet Cambodian soldiers who are still in a standoff with Thai troops. We will stay overnight in a basic guesthouse near the temple site...

Postproduction workshop with Adobe Elements or Adobe Lightroom (tourcode - 4F03)

An option is to do the post-production workshop. The photographer will teach you how to use software like Adobe Elements or Adobe Lightroom by showing some of his own work as example. We will take a closer look at your temple shots before you get to work on one of your best images of the tour with some personal help. 3 hours workshop incl. Adobe Elements or Lightroom teaching in the afternoon from 13.00 until 16.00 hour in your hotel.

New Photo Tours in 2011:

Around Cambodia / Photo Expedition and Workshop
A 10-days photography tour, led by Siem Reap-based photographer Eric de Vries, is an unique opportunity to explore Cambodia. Much time during the tour will be spend on several aspects of photography, like composition and light. This tour includes 2 post-production workshops.

The 7-day photographic experience is a more unique photo-opportunity to explore Cambodia's northeast province of Ratanakiri with its hilltribes and rural life, breathtaking scenery and old Chinese settlements, guided by the photographer with photo-shoots, workshops and lots of personal advice.

Kep / Kampot Photographic Tour

One-day or two-days photographic experience in the South of Cambodia including Kep's Crab Market, an architecture photoshoot of some abandoned French style buildings, the caves around Wat Kirisan in Kompong Trach and a Post-production workshop.

A Day At The Temples (tourcode - 4F01)

The one-day photographic experience is an unique opportunity to explore the photogenic Angkor Park, guided with lots of personal advice.

Two Days At The Temples (tourcode - 4F02)

The two-day photographic experience is a more unique photo-opportunity to explore the famous Angkor Archaeological Park, guided by the photographer and with lots of personal advice.

About the tours:

Both Angkor tours have a large selection of templesites within Angkor Archaeological Park, a selection made by the photographer himself. The tours, including a lunch, are especially for participators who want to make better pictures and want to explore Angkor Park at the same time. The tours are also very recommendable for amateur- and semi-pro photographers.

About the photographer:

Dutch photographer Eric de Vries is living in Siem Reap, Cambodia, the country he's been travelling since 2000, and is currently working on two long-term projects called 'Still Life in Khmer Style' that covers landscapes, temple scenes and buddha statues and PhotoCambodia, a free photo E-zine on Cambodia.

In the meantime he produced several series, most of them in black and white. Breaking The Clouds (Over Ayuthaya), Khmer Standoff (at Preah Vihear), LOST and Invisible Scars are 4 new series, which saw the light recently. Eric is member of SEA/collectiv, a Cambodian based agency...
